DESIGN

Cool, calm and eclectic, QT Bondi has been designed with a clean getaway feel in mind. Nic Graham, the creative behind the look and feel of the hotel, has created the ultimate beachside retreat whilst capturing the essence of the sunny suburb.

Bespoke detailing and designer furnishings create dramatically fresh and elegant interiors. Focusing on crafting an individualised home-away-from-home, the light filled rooms create a mood of tranquillity and beachside bliss.

The use of pastels, pops of colour, and carefully chosen décor depict an all-round summer beach vibe. While the lightness and curvature of the timber represents the motion of a wave.

His team is compelled by the idea that design is a cultural imperative, taking responsibility for the creation of heightened experiences that engage both emotionally and intellectually.

Ongarato continues to succeed in bringing the QT experience to life.

SHAUN GLADWELL

ARTIST

---

Shaun Gladwell is an Australianborn, London-based contemporary artist who works in video, painting, photography, sculpture and installation to name a few.

Commissioned in consultation with QT Hotels & Resorts Art Curator, Amanda Love, Shaun Gladwell is QT Bondi's featured artist. His permanent displays feature in the lobby of QT Bondi and are inspired by the Bondi landscape, encapsulating the energy and vibrancy of Bondi through digital medium.

JANET HINE

COSTUME DESIGN & SUPERVISION

---

With a background in costume design for YTT at Granada Media and Costume Couture, Janet Hine was an obvious choice when it came to commissioning the right designer for QT Bondi staff attire.

Hines creative process started with Managing Director David Seargeant who shared his vision for QT Bondi. Outfits were required to complement the designer interiors – impacting on the hotels environment but not visually wrestling with it – so Hine worked on creating looks that resemble a relaxed beachside resort feel. Comfort and practicalities also needed to play a part as no one member of staff is the same shape or size.

ANNA ROBERTS

STYLIST

---

Anna Roberts has over 14 years experience in design and styling both in Australia and Internationally. After completing her studies in Melbourne, Roberts left to explore Europe and Asia, seeking inspiration and spent nearly a decade in the United Kingdom refining her opulent style. Since returning home to Australia, Roberts has completed numerous design and styling projects along with lecturing at RMIT University.

Responsible for the buying and merchandising for Qtique boutiques and adding finishing touches to each individual guest room at QT Bondi, Roberts sources the most unique, quirky elements to give the guest rooms a definitive guest experience.
