QT Perth

A RICH HISTORY

Modern design meets industrial glamour with a contemporary, urban cool aesthetic at Perth's favourite designer hotel, QT Perth.

Opening its big brass doors to the public in 2018, it is QT Hotels & Resort's first west-coast property and joins an acclaimed family of Australian designer hotels, building on a global reputation for bold interiors, luxurious settings and quirky hospitality.

Perfect for modern explorers, wildflowers and the creatively charged, QT Perth's 18-storey, 184-room hotel enjoys prime position at 133 Murray Street, in the heart of the CBD and is only a stones throw from the winding Swan River. The hotel's proximity to waterfront precinct, Elizabeth Quay, as well as being easily accessible by public transport, makes QT Perth the perfect place to explore the rest of the city.

Located on the site of the former 'CineCentre' complex, the venue has a longstanding history in the city. With a focus on art and design, the hotel offers a personalised guest experience, unforgettable dining and a signature touch of that QT quirk.

PUBLIC SPACES

QT Perth came together with input from a collection of different architects, artists, stylists and designers. The public spaces throughout the hotel including the lobby, café, restaurant and bars were executed by Nic Graham and Associates.

Nic and his team pushed through the ordinary to create a bold, inviting and memorable experience within each area of the hotel.

Big colour, intriguing texture, vintage quirk and a layering of traditional and digital artwork, all help to give a subtle nod to Perth's history and future. Hotel guests should feel like their stay has been a journey, with each individual experience and offering well thought out, paying homage to the state of Western Australia in all its glory.

GUEST ROOMS

Bold, welcoming guest rooms have been thoughtfully designed with luxurious comfort and inspiration in mind. Step into one of the 184 guest rooms and enter a world created by architect and design expert Shelley Indyk.

Each of the boutique guest rooms have been designed with rich materials such as local Jarrah timber flooring and luxe velvet fabrics contrasted with sleek marble bathrooms and polished brassware. Quirks can be seen in bold wallpaper featuring native West Australian Black Cockatoos and the custom designed velvet bedheads in bright jewel tones. Curated metal artworks by Patsy Payne feature in each room, and speak to Perth's mining history.

EATING & DRINKING

QT Perth has fast become a culinary 'must-do' among visitors and locals alike. The hotel's signature restaurant Santini Bar & Grill is a destination in its own right, winning 'Best New Restaurant' soon after opening in 2018 and 'Restaurant of the Year' in 2019 at the prestigious West Australian Good Food Guide Awards.

Guests are treated to 'food of the sun' with Santini's Italian/Mediterranean-style menu, offering signature dishes such as the Squid Ink Risotto and 1984 Tiramisu, both served with flair at the table. The dedicated Sommelier ensures guests receive the perfect pairing from the extensive wine menu.

Rooftop at QT is the it-destination for the after-work crowd, with regular lines on Friday afternoons of guests eagerly waiting their turn to enjoy expertly mixed cocktails and delectable bites on Perth's highest rooftop bar.

For those wanting a quick snack or a caffeine hit, QT Café on the ground floor offers in-house guests and locals a place to unwind and recharge.

SANTINI BAR & GRILL

Inspired by the sun and always embracing the seasons, Santini Bar & Grill celebrates classic Italian dining, pairing it back with everything that is loved about WA.

Brimming with sensory temptations, Santini Grill's open plan kitchen shows off the smoky wood fire coals and a cheese table to swoon over, while bold terracotta and turquoise hues of the dining room transport guests to the Mediterranean. The menu, wisely guided by the seasons, focuses on fresh local produce, thoughtfully sourced and simply cooked.

Nestled next to Santini Grill, Santini Bar serves delicious small plates throughout the evening. The perfect spot for pre-theatre cocktails and dinner, pre-dinner appetizer or a late night-supper. Moody and splashed with intrigue, Santini is an intimate hideout in downtown Perth.
